Kellar refutes chamber advertisement claims

By ELLIS CUEVAS
Hancock County Board of Supervisors President A.A. (Dolph) Kellar on Friday categorically refuted points made in a Chamber of Commerce advertisement appearing in Thursday's Sea Coast Echo in support of the unit system.
The chamber placed two one-half page advertisements endorsing a unit system for Hancock County.
The question of whether the county should change to the unit system will be decided in Tuesday's election.
One of the chamber advertisements stated in part: "...The direct results of this system would be: 1. Improved construction and maintenance procedures..."
In response, Kellar said, "I would like for them to tell the people of Hancock County how it (unit system) would improve the construction and maintenance programs."

The ad contends another result would be "2. Direct savings in the purchase of equipment," and "3. Improved savings in the purchase of material and supplies..."
"We do advertise for equipment, materials, and supplies. How could it be done differently under a unit system—the county still has to abide by the state bid statute."
The final result listed in the chamber's advertisement offers: "4. Strengthened internal control within the county government..."
"I do not know what they are talking about there, nor do I think anyone else does," Kellar feels.

In praise of the current system used by the Hancock Board of Supervisors, Kellar said, "I feel that the current system lets the supervisor be closer to the constituents."
"If the unit system comes in, I will do my very best to see that it works, but I think the Chamber of Commerce or anyone else supporting the unit system should bring (out) facts and not what they have been presenting to the public," Kellar added.
The supervisor president said, "I feel this is the last segment of grass roots government in the state of Mississippi, as the supervisor is the closest to the people of any elected official in our state."
Then Kellar added, "I would like to see it stay that way."

Longo endorses county unit system

By DENA BISNETTE
Waveland Mayor John Longo Jr. has endorsed the county unit system.
Longo said Friday that he had decided to make the endorsement after "careful consideration."
The Waveland Board of Aldermen had initially questioned whether or not the system could benefit Hancock County and the cities of Waveland and Bay St. Louis.
Longo and all five board members stated at their May 21 meeting that they wanted additional information on whether the unit system allows counties to assist cities, particularly after hurricanes, flooding or other emergencies.

"After carefully considering its theory and practicality, I feel it is my duty as a mayor, citizen and businessman to endorse the unit system," Longo said.
"I feel it will encourage growth in Hancock County and Waveland and is worth trying."
"I think the thing I like most about it is that it shows definite signs of cost-effectiveness, more productivity for less money."
Longo added that a change to the unit system will make county government more like the city government of Waveland, which he called "super effective."

He also stated that he feels some of the statements previously issued regarding the unit system were "premature."
Longo said the need to gather more information was not the only reason he had waited until only a few days before the election to make his endorsement public.
"I wanted to let the people decide for themselves," he explained.
The referendum on the unit system will be Tuesday. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Bay mayor opposes ethics amendment

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Bay St. Louis Mayor Victor Frankiewicz has added his voice in opposition to the ethics amendment being presented to the voters in Tuesday's election.

MAYOR VICTOR FRANKIEWICZ

"I want to encourage everyone to vote against this amendment," he said.
"It is really a lie to call it an ethics amendment because it is actually a corruption amendment making it legal for public officials to do business with their own governmental bodies," Frankiewicz added.
According to Frankiewicz, in its present form the proposal is full of loopholes.
"It was a sneaky way to write a piece of legislation because it makes you think it promotes ethics in government but it would really allow someone who wanted to rip off the government to have a field day," he said.

One of the loopholes is the way the writers defined conflict of interest as a situation where a public official is "unduly influenced," Frankiewicz added.
"Whatever 'undue influence' means is just anybody's guess; it opens the door wide for abuse," he said.
Another loophole is that as long as an official does not participate in the vote on a particular issue, it would be legal for him to do business with the governmental body, according to Frankiewicz.
"This encourages behind the scenes deals to be made, then all the official has to do in public is not vote on the issue and it is legal," he said.
This leads to government behind closed doors and this is not good, the mayor added.
"The amendment also allows private sanctions for anyone who violates the law. Even after a official is found guilty, they could just be slapped on the wrist in private," he said.

The constitution already has a strong section on ethics, one of the few parts of the constitution that really should be kept, he said.
"That is why the one that is being presented to the voters in the June 3 election should be voted down," Frankiewicz said.
"If passed, the proposed amendment would make ethics a joke," he added.
However there are some changes that should be made in the state ethics laws to clarify the interpretation of indirect conflicts, he said.
"The law can now be interpreted in any way, and that is far too broad because it opens some public officials to harassment for indirect conflict of interest when indeed there is nothing wrong," he said.

Court order delays elections

By DENA BISNETTE
A court order has delayed more elections for Chancery and Circuit Judge posts.
According to Hancock County Election Commission Secretary Charles F. Gottschalk, only three elections were originally delayed in Hancock County but now six have been postponed.
The injunction was filed in U.S. District Court in Jackson Friday by Judge William H. Barbour Jr. and is delaying all of the state's elections for Chancery and Circuit Court Judgeships until those elections can be cleared with the U.S. Department of Justice.
The injunction was filed in connection with a lawsuit, Henry Kirksey v. William Allain, which challenged any Mississippi judicial districts with more than one judge and any judgeships created by statutes not precleared with the Justice Department as complying with the Voting Rights Act of 1965.
Gottschalk had received an order in April instructing him that the case did not apply to the Circuit Judge post now held by James Thomas and the Chancery Judge posts now held by William Stewart and Jason Floyd.
Those elections were listed on the second page of the ballot for Tuesday's Democratic primary.

PINE HILLS HOTEL

Pine Hills Hotel facing demolition

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
The Pine Hills Hotel Historical Society has launched a campaign to save the hotel from a "good possibility" of being demolished.
David Wiseheart, society president, reported Friday he had received information from a high-level employee at the Dupont DeLisle Plant adjacent to the unoccupied hotel structure, that the building would be leveled in the next two weeks.
Dupont is owner of the structure first opened as a luxury hotel on the north shore of Bay St. Louis in 1926.
"We feel the public ought to be aware of what could happen to the hotel before it is too late," Wiseheart said.

However, Dupont spokesman Chuck Conover said the hotel would definitely not be destroyed in the next several weeks.
"We are not 100 percent sure that the hotel will even be demolished but it is a good possibility," Conover added.
"The building is one big safety hazard and Dupont is very conscious of safety," he continued.
"The prime consideration is the condition of the building which has severely deteriorated," Conover said.
"People get inside the hotel building faster than we can put up fences around the property," he said.

Conover also said due to vandalism there has been extensive destruction of the building.
He added that the destruction had rendered the building in such a shape that repair costs would be "too astronomical to even consider."
Wiseheart said that the Historical Society is circulating petitions to try and prevent the building from being destroyed.
He added that in some areas where the petitions were being placed, they were being filled before replacements are brought.

First Quarter resales realtors association reports

Home resale activity in Mississippi during the first quarter this year was 12.4 percent lower than in the first quarter last year, according to the Mississippi Association of Realtors.

"On a seasonally adjusted annual basis, 'home resales in Mississippi (including existing single-family homes, apartment condominium units and cooperative units) fell to 26,100 units during the first quarter, compared with 29,800 units during the same three-month period in 1985," said John L. Phillips, President of the Mississippi Association of Realtors.

Home resales in Mississippi achieved the following seasonally adjusted annual rates during the previous three quarters: Fourth quarter 1985, 36,200 units; third quarter 1985, 41,200; and second quarter 1985, 34,100 units.

The Association estimates that the primary causes for the decline in existing home sales in the first quarter is due to the backlog in processing loan applications for FHA and/or VA backed mortgages caused by the government's delay in extending the FHA and VA authority and loan limits as well as a glut in home mortgage re-financing. Another factor negatively affecting the market in certain areas of the state is the slumping oil prices.

Nationwide, resale activity for single-family homes, apartment condominiums and cooperatives rose 10.3 percent from the first quarter of 1985 to the first quarter of 1986 to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 3.52 million units.

"With mortgage interest rates at a seven-year low, housing affordability conditions for many buyers are better than they have been at any time during this decade," Phillips said.

Phillips noted that the average effective closing rate (including points) for fixed-rate mortgages was 11.18 percent in 1986's first quarter, and it was 10.10 percent for adjustable-rate mortgages.

"The annual rate of a particular quarter represents what the total number of actual sales for a year would be if the relative sales pace in that quarter were maintained for four consecutive quarters.

Seasonally adjusted annual rates are used in reporting monthly and quarterly data to factor out seasonal variations in resale activity. For example, home sales volume normally is higher in the summer and relatively light in winter months, primarily because of differences in the weather.

Residential pool safety survey under way

The Consumer Product Safety Commission has begun a study to determine the causes of accidental drownings and near-drownings involving children under five in residential pools and spas.

Cooperating in the study are the American Academy of Pediatrics and other medical, emergency and health care professionals. The study is to be completed by September 30.

An estimated 300 children under five years of age drown annually in residential swimming pools and spas. There are another estimated 3,000 near-drownings of children in the same age group. Some of these accidents result in permanent impairment.

Nationally, drowning is the fourth leading cause of death for youngsters under five. In some states, drowning is the leading cause of accidental death in that age group.

CPSC offers the following tips for owners of residential swimming pools and spas:

—Never leave a child unsupervised near a pool.

—Instruct babysitters about potential hazards to young children in and around swimming pools and the need for constant supervision.

—Completely fence the pool. Install self-locking and self-closing gates. Position latches out of reach of young children.

—Do not consider young children "drown proof" because they have had swimming lessons.

—Do not use flotation devices as a substitute for supervision.

—Never use a pool with its pool cover partially in place. Remove a pool cover completely.

—Place tables and chairs well

away from the pool fence to prevent children from climbing into the pool area.

—Keep toys away from the pool area because a young child playing with the toys could accidentally fall in the water.

—Have a poolside telephone with emergency numbers taped to it.

—Learn cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

—Keep rescue equipment by the pool.

Additionally, on the eve of the opening of many public and private pools around the country for the summer season, CPSC cautions swimmers about improper diving practices which can result in serious injuries and cause quadriplegia.

Safety experts urge divers to observe the following precautions:

—Never dive into an above-ground pool; it is too shallow.

—Don't dive from the side of an in-ground pool. Enter the water feet first.

—Dive only from the center of the diving board.

—Always steer up immediately upon entering the water.

—Don't dive if under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

—Improper use of pool slides presents the same potential danger as improper diving techniques. Never slide head first; slide feet first only.

The CPSC requests that consumers report drowning or near-drowning incidents involving children to CPSC's toll-free hotline at 800-638-CPSC. A teletypewriter number for the hearing impaired is 800-638-8720.

Federal Highway Use Tax must be paid before purchasing tags

Mississippi heavy vehicle owners must pay their Federal Highway Use Tax before they can renew their vehicle license plate registration. A stamped Schedule 1 of Form 2290

must be surrendered to the State Motor Vehicle Division or to the County Clerk when purchasing the vehicle tags. Jackson Internal Revenue Service

District Director Tully Miller said: "Mississippi heavy vehicle owners who have not received their stamped Schedule 1 from the Atlanta Service Center may supply the State or County Clerk with a photocopy of the filed Form 2290, Schedule 1, and sufficient documentation of paying the tax. A legible copy of both sides of the cancelled check is acceptable documentation."

Part of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 requires owners of certain heavy vehicles, such as large trucks, tractor trucks, and buses to show proof that they have filed the Form 2290 before being allowed to purchase vehicle tags.

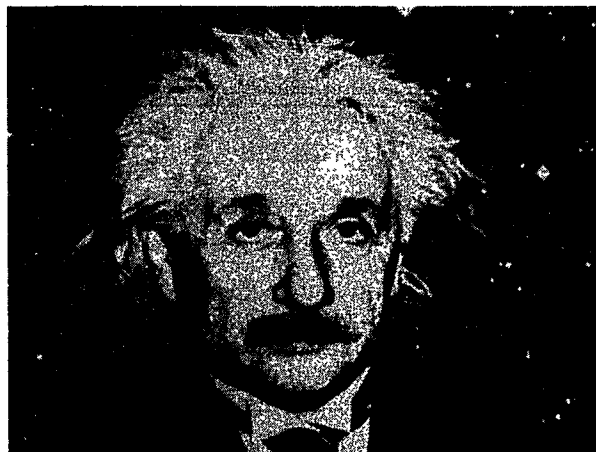

The tags must be purchased before the vehicles are used on Federal, state, county and city highways and roads. The tax period is July 1 through June 30. The tax is incurred when a taxable vehicle is first used on any public highway during the tax period.

For example, such a heavy vehicle owner who uses his vehicle on public highways only from October through May of the tax period will pay tax only for those eight months of use," Miller said. "Of course, if the vehicle is used for a longer or shorter period, a proportionate amount of tax will be collected," he added.

Revenue from the tax helps Mississippi to finance its portion of the Interstate Highway System.

The Internal Revenue Service toll-free information telephone number for questions on this and other Federal tax matters is 1-800-424-1040.

First Quarter resales realtors association reports

Home resale activity in Mississippi during the first quarter this year was 12.4 percent lower than in the first quarter last year, according to the Mississippi Association of Realtors.

"On a seasonally adjusted annual basis, 'home resales in Mississippi (including existing single-family homes, apartment condominium units and cooperative units) fell to 26,100 units during the first quarter, compared with 29,800 units during the same three-month period in 1985," said John L. Phillips, President of the Mississippi Association of Realtors.

Home resales in Mississippi achieved the following seasonally adjusted annual rates during the previous three quarters: Fourth quarter 1985, 36,200 units; third quarter 1985, 41,200, and second quarter 1985, 34,100 units.

The Association estimates that the primary causes for the decline in existing home sales in the first quarter is due to the backlog in processing loan applications for FHA and/or VA backed mortgages caused by the government's delay in extending the FHA and VA authority and loan limits as well as a glut in home mortgage re-financing. Another factor negatively affecting the market in certain areas of the state is the slumping oil prices.

Nationwide, resale activity for single-family homes, apartment condominiums and cooperatives rose 10.3 percent from the first quarter of 1985 to the first quarter of 1986 to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 3.52 million units.

"With mortgage interest rates at a seven-year lows, housing affordability conditions for many buyers are better than they have been at any time during this decade," Phillips said.

Phillips noted that the average effective closing rate (including points) for fixed-rate mortgages was 11.18 percent in 1986's first quarter, and it was 10.10 percent for adjustable-rate mortgages.

"The annual rate of a particular quarter represents what the total number of actual sales for a year would be if the relative sales pace in that quarter were maintained for four consecutive quarters.

Seasonally adjusted annual rates are used in reporting monthly and quarterly data to factor out seasonal variations in resale activity. For example, home sales volume normally is higher in the summer and relatively light in winter months, primarily because of differences in the weather.

Residential pool safety survey under way

The Consumer Product Safety Commission has begun a study to determine the causes of accidental drownings and near-drownings involving children under five in residential pools and spas.

Cooperating in the study are the American Academy of Pediatrics and other medical, emergency and health care professionals. The study is to be completed by September 30. An estimated 300 children under five years of age drown annually in residential swimming pools and spas. There are another estimated 3,000 near-drownings of children in the same age group. Some of these accidents result in permanent impairment.

Nationally, drowning is the fourth leading cause of death for youngsters under five. In some states, drowning is the leading cause of accidental death in that age group.

CPSC offers the following tips for owners of residential swimming pools and spas:

—Never leave a child unsupervised near a pool.

—Instruct babysitters about potential hazards to young children in and around swimming pools and the need for constant supervision.

—Completely fence the pool. Install self-locking and self-closing gates. Position latches out of reach of young children.

—Do not consider young children "drown proof" because they have had swimming lessons.

—Do not use flotation devices as a substitute for supervision.

—Never use a pool with its pool cover partially in place. Remove a pool cover completely.

—Place tables and chairs well

away from the pool fence to prevent children from climbing into the pool area.

—Keep toys away from the pool area because a young child playing with the toys could accidentally fall in the water.

—Have a poolside telephone with emergency numbers taped to it.

—Learn cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

—Keep rescue equipment by the pool.

Additionally, on the eve of the opening of many public and private pools around the country for the summer season, CPSC cautions swimmers about improper diving practices which can result in serious injuries and cause quadriplegia.

Safety experts urge divers to observe the following precautions:

—Never dive into an above-ground pool; it is too shallow.

—Don't dive from the side of an in-ground pool. Enter the water feet first.

—Dive only from the center of the diving board.

—Always steer up immediately upon entering the water.

—Don't dive if under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

—Improper use of pool slides presents the same potential danger as improper diving techniques. Never slide head first; slide feet first only.

The CPSC requests that consumers report drowning or near-drowning incidents involving children to CPSC's toll-free hotline at 800-638-CPSC. A teletypewriter number for the hearing impaired is 800-638-8720.

Federal Highway Use Tax must be paid before purchasing tags

Mississippi heavy vehicle owners must pay their Federal Highway Use Tax before they can renew their vehicle license plate registration. A stamped Schedule 1 of Form 2290

must be surrendered to the State Motor Vehicle Division or to the County Clerk when purchasing the vehicle tags. Jackson Internal Revenue Service

District Director Tully Miller said: "Mississippi heavy vehicle owners who have not received their stamped Schedule 1 from the Atlanta Service Center may supply the State or County Clerk with a photocopy of the filed Form 2290, Schedule 1, and sufficient documentation of paying the tax. A legible copy of both sides of the cancelled check is acceptable documentation."

Part of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 requires owners of certain heavy vehicles, such as large trucks, tractor trucks, and buses to show proof that they have filed the Form 2290 before being allowed to purchase vehicle tags.

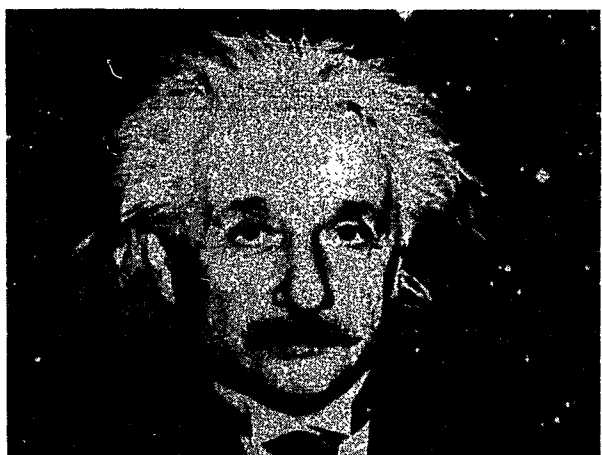

The tags must be purchased before the vehicles are used on Federal, state, county and city highways and roads. The tax period is July 1 through June 30. The tax is incurred when a taxable vehicle is first used on any public highway during the tax period.

For example, such a heavy vehicle owner who uses his vehicle on public highways only from October through May of the tax period will pay tax only for those eight months of use," Miller said. "Of course, if the vehicle is used for a longer or shorter period, a proportionate amount of tax will be collected," he added.

Revenue from the tax helps Mississippi to finance its portion of the Interstate Highway System.

The Internal Revenue Service toll-free information telephone number for questions on this and other Federal tax matters is 1-800-424-1040.

A vote for the unit system is a vote for the future

Hancock Countians will have an opportunity Tuesday to change the form of government under which our county operates.

The proposed unit system would give the Hancock County Board of Supervisors a state leadership role and an opportunity to create a model form of government for other counties to follow.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors requested and received a local and private bill from the State Legislature authorizing qualified electors of Hancock County to vote on whether they want to change to a unit system.

We feel it is a step in the right direction for the Hancock County supervisors to have turned the question over to the voters—in other counties the political leaders made that decision themselves.

In 1979 Judge Arden Bennett ordered all counties to be reappraised.

The Hancock County supervisors took a leadership role at that time when they authorized the county tax collector-assessor to undertake an in-house reappraisal.

This state leadership role has already saved Hancock County thousands of dollars and is expected to save the county considerably more in the years to come.

This has already led to a unit system-approach to city and county government operations through having the county collect taxes for the City of Bay St. Louis—a definite money-saver.

Such unification of city-county operations is now being considered as mandatory on a statewide basis in the future by the Legislature.

Hancock County's approach to reappraisal is a model being studied by many other counties in Mississippi.

At a recent meeting of a Hancock County Chamber of Commerce task force studying the unit system, the supervisors said they were against the change in government, yet they stated if the qualified electors want the county to operate under a unit system they would go along with the wishes of their constituents and do everything in their power to make the system work.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce endorses the unit system, as do other organizations, officials and individuals in the county.

In gathering information on how a unit system works, one of the more interesting facts we have discovered is how the Hancock County Board of Supervisors already works as a 'unit system' in so many areas.

The outcome of Tuesday's election could provide another opportunity for Hancock County's leaders to take a leading role in formulating progressive improvements in local government other counties in the state will copy.

On Tuesday, June 3, vote for the unit system.

From the Office of the Governor

TRANSPORTATION STUDIES NOT A NEW IDEA

As I travel around the state to promote the idea of creating a state Department of Transportation, I have found a number of taxpayers and legislators who are not familiar with the large volume of studies that have already been conducted regarding our transportation needs. Those studies unanimously recommended a state Department of Transportation.

Fact: Mississippi is the only state with an elected highway commission.

Fact: We spend more dollars per mile than any other state.

Fact: We are not one of the top economically developed states.

These facts, combined with the results of these studies, point to the great need to reorganize our present system of transportation.

The most recent study completed regarding our state's transportation needs was presented to the Legislature in 1983. The study was mandated by the Legislature in 1981 when it created the State Department of Energy and Transportation. This study cost the taxpayers of our state $600,000.

During the process of the two-year study, which was conducted by an internationally renowned South Carolina firm, a Policy Committee was established to review the findings and give input to the final report.

This study is eight volumes, covering every mode of transportation in the state. It was made available to the Legislature some three years ago. It is so comprehensive that we do not need additional studies on the issue of transportation.

Prior to the 1983 study, a 1976-77 study was conducted by a consortium of our state universities, under a federal grant. This study, too, concluded that a department of transportation was essential for the economic growth and development of our state.

During the early 1970s, our legislators studied transportation needs when they structured the highway corridor program. They, too, concluded we need some changes in our method of handling transportation needs for our people.

These are just three studies for the past decade, all coming to the same conclusion. If we went back through history, many others could be found. The bottom line is: If we were operating in the best possible manner, under the best possible system, wouldn't Mississippi be growing much faster economically?

POPEYE—FOR NATIONAL SAFE BOATING WEEK

Flotilla 33 slates vessel examinations to mark National Boat Safety Week June 1-7

U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 33 - Bay St. Louis, Waveland, Diamondhead - will provide free boat examinations for any boat whose owner is interested in safety. "For such a sticker on your boat, call Harri Devine, 255-1298, or George La Breche, 467-3475. They'll arrange for you to have a Coast Guard Auxiliary examination," said Robert Simono, flotilla commander.

Flotilla 33 has five members qualified to check boats to be sure they have all necessary devices aboard.

"Remember, you need personal safety devices for each person aboard; a fire extinguisher; lights that work; flares for an emergency; a horn that works; a paddle; lights, if boat is so equipped, must work; a first aid kit that we hope you will never need and a generally ship-shape boat," Simono said.

Hurricane Awareness Week scheduled

June 1 through 7

Hurricane Season officially begins June 1 and runs through the end of November. With this in mind, the National Weather Service, in cooperation with the Mississippi Emergency Management Agency and the Federal Emergency Management Agency, will conduct a Hurricane Awareness Week in Mississippi during the first week in June.

Although all parts of the State may feel the effects of a hurricane, such as heavy rains and tornadoes, the main emphasis of the Awareness Week will be directed at the area where the threat is the greatest - the coastal counties. However, Awareness Week informational material will be disseminated across the entire southern half of Mississippi.

It is during this week that residents in Southern Mississippi should make preparations for the next time a hurricane strikes the Mississippi Coast. Many people may think that since Mississippi was hit by a strong hurricane (Elena) last year, that we are not going to be affected by another one anytime soon.

This type of thinking is what causes people to be unprepared, which can easily result in the loss of lives. It is therefore urged that residents use June 1 through 7 to formulate a hurricane preparedness plan.

The average number of tropical cyclones in the Atlantic, Caribbean and Gulf of Mexico during the hurricane season is four tropical storms and six hurricanes.

What made this past season seem so active, was the fact that nearly every one of those storms affected the United States.

Hurricanes are usually restricted to the Atlantic or Caribbean toward the end of the season, but two hurricanes (Juan and Kate) invaded the Gulf Coastal States in October and November.

It is hard to predict what this upcoming hurricane season will bring, but just one major hurricane hitting the United States coast could possibly cause billions of dollars of property damage and a number of deaths. So let's be prepared...just in case!

Quotables by CUEVAS

The Exchange Club has been placing American Flags along US-90 for special days for one year through the cooperation of many businesses and individuals.

Some residents may not have known the Exchange Club was involved in this very fine way of showing our community's patriotism.

On Memorial Day morning American Flags were placed by Exchange Club members along US-90 within the city limits of Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

As most of you know, we had some severe showers on Memorial Day and some of the flags were knocked from the utility poles by wind and rain.

It was impossible for members to collect all of the flags at one time and several of them were collected by citizens.

In case you may have collected a flag alongside the highway and are unaware who the owner is, you may just drop it off at the sheriff's office.

We know the Exchange Club would be happy to have a complete set of flags for the next holiday.

A Bay St. Louis resident visited us last week to report she had been receiving telephone calls from children to amuse themselves in evenings.

The children will hang up or ask for someone they know does not reside at the residence.

This lady has reported the incidents to the telephone company and they are investigating the matter.

In case parents do not realize it, the improper use of their telephone can cause the telephone company to remove their service.

The visit of New Orleans Saints officials and players on Wednesday morning was a big hit with fans.

The visit was co-sponsored by the Hancock County Exchange Club and Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

There were some very lucky folks who won attendance prizes at the 'Coffee with the Saints,' such as Dan Foy, the winner of a pair of New Orleans Saints season tickets.

Patt Cucullu was awarded a weekend for two at the New Orleans Hilton. Kevin Bourg of Diamondhead received a team jersey, although a bit large for Kevin, and there was a t-shirt winner, with a cap with a new Saints logo going to Jerry Lane, who motored all the way from Pascagoula for the event.

The new ownership and leadership in the Saints organization appears to be going in the right direction in promoting the team.

I would like to express a sincere thank you to all members of the 1986 graduating class of North Bay Elementary and teachers for their plaque of appreciation.

It is hoped each of the students will continue their educations through junior high, high school, and college.

Education is something which will follow you throughout your life.

Good luck to each of you in the coming years.

PR federation names Haas awards judge

Tish Haas, director of marketing for the Mississippi Coast Coliseum and Convention Center, is one of eight judges of the 12th Annual Lantern Awards sponsored by the Southern Public Relations Federation.

Prior to joining the Mississippi Coast Coliseum and Convention Center, Haas served as the public relations director for a marketing firm in New Orleans.

Earlier, she was the director of the Mississippi Pavilion at the 1984 World's Fair.

She also worked with the State Department of Economic Development's Tourism Office where she was in charge of special projects and community development programs.

The Lantern Awards Competition is held annually to recognize outstanding achievements by professional practitioners in the tri-state area of Mississippi, Alabama, and Louisiana.

Judging is based on factual material and documentation. Planning, originality, creativity and effectiveness for each entry is of prime importance.

The entries are broken down into specific categories to allow judges to give proper consideration to all projects entered in the competition.

Categories include long and short term public relations programs; annual reports; publications; special events; news features; brochures; letterhead, envelope, logo design; photography; direct mail programs; television production; audiovisuals; and, audio productions.

Winners of the awards for each category will be announced the first week in August at the SPRF Convention in New Orleans.

OWL/TV, a new children's discovery series, encourages kids to explore the world around them. Phillips named to Mississippi House Management Committee

JACKSON — State Representative Walter J. Phillips of Bay St. Louis has been appointed to the Management Committee of the Mississippi House of Representatives.

The appointment was announced Friday by House Speaker C. B. "Buddie" Newman, chairman of the Management Committee, to fill a vacancy on the five-member committee. The Management Committee handles various legislative and personnel matters for the House.

Phillips, whose legislative district includes a large portion of Hancock County, is a veteran of more than 20 years in the Mississippi House of Representatives.

Courrage opposes unit system

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors remains opposed to the county unit system.

Beat One Supervisor Bert Courrage said Friday that while some of the Chamber of Commerce-recommended guidelines for a unit system deal with specific board objections, the guidelines are still not enough.

However, the board has agreed informally to use some of the Chamber guidelines if Tuesday's referendum passes.

One guideline dealing with a specific objection was a recommendation for use of a central equipment barn and mechanic shop, but with some satellite barns in other areas for easier transportation of machines.

In addition, the Chamber task force recommended a central purchase clerk, which Courrage said the county already has.

One of his personal objections to the system is the initial cost of setting up both the centralized barn system and facilities for and administrator and his staff.

Courrage said he disagrees with a Chamber recommendation that a maintenance supervisor be used rather than an administrator.

"I feel an administrator would be more suitable than a maintenance supervisor whether we adopt the unit system or not," the supervisor said.

Lack of specific guidelines for a unit system has been a contributing cause for his opposition.

"You can talk to 10 different people and they have 10 different ideas how it should be set up," Courrage said.

"In most instances we have to operate under the strict guidelines of the legislature. If the legislators feel this is the proper way to go, why don't they make it compulsory? They do on everything else. They don't provide options."

The supervisor said he is also concerned with the possibility that a majority of the board could block important projects when voting on priorities.

He pointed out that the board has already discovered the problems related to priority votes through a dispute over the location of Hancock Medical Center, which was originally recommended for a Nicholson Avenue site by a citizen committee.

Sheriff's department confiscates marijuana

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Sheriff's Department has confiscated 114 marijuana plants found in a boathouse behind a Bonney Street residence Friday.

No arrest was made at the time, but Sheriff's Department Investigator Glen Strong said an arrest is expected in the near future.

Strong said Sheriff Ronald Peterson received a telephone call Thursday night that there might be marijuana hidden in a boathouse behind a burned-out residence owned by K.D. Stafford.

Stafford, who lives in Poplarville, had no knowledge that the plants were on his property, Strong said. The plants were in a shed built on to the back of the boathouse and in pots hidden on a wooded section of the property.

Strong said the boathouse was placed under surveillance for about 12 hours and a search warrant was obtained.

Peterson, Strong and Deputy Dennis Tartavouille went to the site and entered the boathouse shortly after noon. No one was inside but various types of marijuana paraphernalia and a small quantity of dried marijuana were found.

The pots containing the plants, which were of various heights, were moved by jail trustees to the sheriff's office.

The marijuana was worth about $2,000, Investigator Alvin Ladner said.

The residence in front of the boathouse burned last week and the fire is being investigated by the Sheriff's Department Arson Squad.

Strong said the investigators do not believe at this time that the fire and the marijuana crop were related.

Mississippi Gulf Coast Craftsmen's Guild seeks members

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Craftsmen's Guild is seeking area crafts people who are interested in joining other local crafts people for the purpose of promoting the creation of quality crafts.

The MGCCG sponsors three juried craft shows each year and art scholarships at both the University of Southern Mississippi and William Carey College.

Merchandise offered for sale at MGCCG shows must be handcrafted and cannot include items made from kits.

In order to exhibit in MGCCG shows, a member must have work approved by a standards committee following established guidelines. The next review by this committee will be held at the home of the standards chairman, Darrell Varner, 39 Greenbriar Drive, Gulfport, on June 7.

Any prospective member who wishes to have his work considered should take three items in each category (one or two categories may be pursued) to that address between and 6 p.m. on June 7.

Each item should be tagged with the name and telephone number of the craftsman and be accompanied by a narrative explaining how the craft is accomplished.

The items must be picked up the following day between 1 and 3 p.m.

MGCCG members are juried at no charge, but a non-member must pay a non-refundable fee of $5 for the service. The $5 jurying fee will be applied toward the $15 annual membership dues if the craftsman decides to join the MGCCG after the jurying process.

Crafts people who are accepted in this jurying will be allowed to participate in the MGCCG's Craft Show and Sale at Edgewater Mall on July 18 and 19.

Anyone wishing additional information about the standards review should call Darrell Varner at 896-6075 after 5 p.m.

The second page of the ballot has been removed, Gottschalk said. In addition, the 26 voting machines to be used in the election are being reworked to prevent accidental voting should one of the pages be overlooked.

Some votes in those races have already been cast in affidavit or absentee ballots, and those will have to be disregarded, he added. In addition, those totals can not be revealed.

The primary will include only two races.

In one, J. Ruble Griffin faces Jon Swartzfager for the District Two, Post One, State Supreme Court seat.

In the other, Larry Albritton will face Arlon Coate for the District Five Congressional seat.

In addition for the primary, voters Tuesday will participate in two special elections.

One will determine whether or not Hancock County will convert its government to the unit system. The other includes proposed constitutional amendments on ethics for public officials and tax reductions on owner-occupied residences.

The polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

State homemakers provide in-home services to the elderly

Almost 300 individuals across the state are making life better for thousands of elderly Mississippians. They do simple things such as making a bed, assisting with dressing and grooming and preparing and serving meals. But these simple things mean a lot. They often determine whether an older person is able to remain at home and receive proper care.

These 294 individuals are homemakers whose services are funded by the Mississippi Council on Aging (MCOA), Governor's Office of Federal-State Programs, and the State Department of Public Welfare.

"These services are essential to many senior adults who require supportive services when health or social problems occur or when they return to their homes after specialized care," said MCOA Director Dr.

David K. Brown. "These in-home services assist in strengthening family life, promoting self-sufficiency and improving the quality of life of older persons."

On a typical day, homemakers may perform many tasks such as dusting, cleaning and laundry as well as shopping, running errands and assisting with household budgeting. Planning, preparing and serving meals and assisting with daily living skills such as grooming, dressing and oral hygiene also are provided.

Homemakers are concerned with the safety of their clients. They are responsible for observing, eliminating and reporting household hazards; knowing basic first aid; and instituting safety education measures.

They also provide education, home management, nutrition assistance, help with personal care and daily living tasks.

Because of its emphasis toward community based long-term care aimed at keeping elderly Mississippians at home and independent for as long as possible, MCOA is coordinating with the Department of Public Welfare and the State Department of Education a certification program for homemakers. All MCOA and welfare department homemakers will have completed training by June 30.

"The certification program is designed to upgrade the skills of our homemakers and improve the quality of care they provide," Brown explained. "As our older population continues to increase, so will the need for these types of services."

These in-home services are vital to enhancing the quality of life for all our elderly citizens."

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

No. 41
A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION 112, MISSISSIPPI CONSTITUTION OF 1890, TO PRESCRIBE ASSESSMENT RATIOS FOR REVISED PROPERTY CLASSES, TO PROVIDE THAT THE ASSESSMENT RATIO ON ONE CLASS OF PROPERTY SHALL NOT BE MORE THAN THREE TIMES THE ASSESSMENT RATIO ON OTHER CLASSES OF PROPERTY; TO PROVIDE THAT THE LEGISLATURE MAY DENY OR LIMIT A COUNTY OR OTHER TAXING AUTHORITY THE RIGHT TO LEVY COUNTY AND/OR SPECIAL TAXES ON NUCLEAR-POWERED ELECTRICAL GENERATING PLANTS, TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATURE TO PROVIDE FOR A SPECIAL MODE OF VALUATION, ASSESSMENT AND LEVY UPON NUCLEAR-POWERED ELECTRICAL GENERATING PLANTS AND PROVIDE FOR THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE REVENUE DERIVED THEREFROM.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, TWO-THIRDS (2/3) OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN, WHICH TWO-THIRDS (2/3) CONSISTS OF NOT LESS THAN A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS ELECTED TO EACH HOUSE, That the following proposed amendment to the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 be submitted to the qualified electors of the state for ratification or rejection at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of June 1986:

Amend Section 112, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, to read as follows:
Section 112. Taxation shall be uniform and equal throughout the state. All property not exempt from ad valorem taxation shall be taxed at its assessed value. Property shall be assessed for taxes under general laws, and by uniform rules, and in proportion to its true value according to the classes defined herein. The Legislature may, by general laws, exempt particular species of property from taxation, in whole or in part.

The Legislature shall provide, by general laws, the method by which the true value of taxable property shall be ascertained; provided, however, in arriving at the true value of Class I and Class II property, the appraisal shall be made according to current use, regardless of location. The Legislature may provide for a special mode of valuation and assessment for railroads, and railroad and other corporate property, or for particular species of property belonging to persons, corporations or associations not situated wholly in one (1) county. All such property shall be assessed in proportion to its value according to its class, and no county, or other taxing authority, shall be denied the right to levy county and/or special taxes upon such assessment as in other cases of property situated and assessed in the county, except that the Legislature, by general law, may deny or limit a county or other taxing authority the right to levy county and/or special taxes on nuclear-powered electrical generating plants. In addition to or in lieu of any such county and/or special taxes on nuclear-powered electrical generating plants, the Legislature, by general law enacted by a majority vote of the members of each house present and voting, may provide for a special mode of valuation, assessment and levy upon nuclear-powered electrical generating plants and provide for the distribution of the revenue derived therefrom. The Legislature may provide a special mode of assessment, fixing the taxable year, date of the tax lien, and method and date of assessing and collecting taxes on all motor vehicles.

The assessed value of property shall be a percentage of its true value, which shall be known as its assessment ratio. The assessment ratio on each class of property as defined herein shall be uniform throughout the state upon the same class of property, provided that the assessment ratio of any one (1) class of property shall not be more than three (3) times the assessment ratio on any other class of property. For purposes of assessment for ad valorem taxes, taxable property shall be divided into five (5) classes and shall be assessed at a percentage of its true value as follows:

Class I. Single-family, owner-occupied, residential real property, at ten percent (10%) of true value.

Class II. All other real property, except for real property included in Class I or IV, at fifteen percent (15%) of true value.

Class III. Personal property, except for motor vehicles and for personal property included in Class IV, at fifteen percent (15%) of true value.

Class IV. Public Utility property, which is property owned or used by public service corporations required by general laws to be appraised and assessed by the state or the county, excluding railroad and airline property and motor vehicles, at thirty percent (30%) of true value.

Class V. Motor vehicles, at thirty percent (30%) of true value. The Legislature may, by general law, establish acreage limitations on Class I property.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL ANTHONY LESTER

Lester-Welch

Amy Lynne Welch and Paul Anthony Lester exchanged wedding vows Saturday, May 17 in the home of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Elliott of Bay St. Louis. Judge Joseph Dobson performed the 11 a.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Welch Jr. of Bay St. Louis. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Kirksey of Bay St. Louis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white sheer organza with raised bodice and ring collar of venise lace on a sheer yoke of English-net adorned with schiffli embroidered cameo. Venise lace topped a victorian ruffle of schiffli embroidery and gracefully fell over the shoulders, forming the sleeves. The A-line flared skirt with chapel length train was bordered with a crystal pleated ruffle and topped with a band of schiffli embroidery.

She wore a headpiece of stephanotis, mini-gardenias and white roses with baby's breath and carried a hand-tied bouquet of long stemmed white bridal roses and baby's breath with fern and ribbon streamers.

Nicola Dietrich of Waveland was maid of honor. She wore a lavender formal taffeta gown with maroon straps and maroon sash at the waist. The three tiered skirt was piped at the edge with maroon taffeta. She wore a headpiece of lavender and white tiny roses and ribbons and carried a hand-tied bouquet of lavender roses, baby's breath, fern and ribbons.

Anthony Chifci of Bay St. Louis served his brother as best man.

A buffet dinner and reception followed the ceremony in the Elliott home. The formal dining room table was overlaid with an heirloom white lace and linen cloth which held cut glass baskets of white flowers flanked by lalique candlesticks with white tapers. Arrangements of bird-of-paradise, caladium, anthurium and fern decorated the room.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ted Reynolds and Mrs. Ronnie Pernicaro, both of Bay St. Louis, aunts of the bride; Grace Welch and Sadie Welch, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Nathan Gernsbacker and Michelle Genet, both of New Orleans, cousins of the bride.

The bride is a former student of Our Lady Academy, and a graduate of Bonnnabel High School in New Orleans. The groom is a graduate of North Central High School and is finishing his second year of duty in the United States Army, Paratroop Division, and stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C.

The bride is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Elsie Welch of Bay St. Louis, and Mr. J. L. Welch Sr. of Madison, LA. She is the great-granddaughter of Mrs. Edward P. Ortte and the late Mr. Edward P. Ortte, and the late Mr. and Mrs. L. S. (Dec) Elliott, all of Bay St. Louis.

Paternal great-grandparents are Mrs. Fred Sandifer and the late Mr. Fred Sandifer of Covington, LA. The groom is the grandson of Mrs. Ada Caviler and Mrs. Curtis Kirksey of New Orleans, LA.

On return from a wedding trip to Columbus, Ga., the couple resides in Spring Lake, N.C.

World War I Veterans Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of World War I, USA, Inc. was held on Thursday, May 22 at the American Legion Home in Bay St. Louis at 3 p.m.

New members were initiated by Pauline Charing. Due to the presence of the following newly elected state officers, regular business was eliminated in order to introduce and welcome Jo Madigan, president; Virginia Barnes, senior vice president; Bertie Walker Jr., vice president; and Lena Dedman, secretary.

A general discussion followed regarding the recent state convention in Gulfport and plans were discussed for Memorial Day.

The auxiliary joined the Veterans and Mayor Franckiewicz of Bay St. Louis, who addressed the group, emphasizing the importance of the Memorial Day observance and national patriotism.

A delicious meal was served.

Crafty Homemakers Extension Club

The meeting of the Crafty Homemakers Extension Club was held on May 26 at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Ladner.

Mrs. Minnie Geiger, president, opened with the Pledge of Allegiance.

The devotional, in honor of Memorial Day, was a beautiful rendition of "In Flanders Field" given by hour hostess.

The minutes and treasurer's report were read by Mrs. Roslyn Weathers. Mrs. Marguerite Fayard, our former secretary, donated her first-place winnings from the Secretary's Record Book to the club.

The Focus was on "Gaining Weight While Aging," presented by Mrs. Ethel Mae Fillingame, and a health and nutrition discussion followed in which the members participated.

Mrs. Beatrice Ladner spoke on Leaders' Training which covered various subjects including cancer and dehydration of foods.

Crystal Schaefer and Beatrice Ladner were at the Library for the Homemakers Exhibit during National Homemakers Week.

We welcomed Mrs. Winona Weinmann who is recovering from illness and wish a speedy recovery to our ailing members Mrs. Mildred Cornell and Marguerite Fayard.

Have a happy and safe vacation, and we hope to see everyone on August 25.

COUNTY UNIT SYSTEM, A PIG IN A POKE:

That's what a vote for the Unit System is to those of us that choose to live in the rural area of the county where most of the road work is needed.

Five men with full crews have trouble enough trying to take care of our needs, and we're expected to put this burden on one man-then hope and pray he will get around to our needs.
NO WAY:

Most of the Road & Bridge budget would have to go for administration, leaving very little for road repairs.

Majority rules and it's not fair if you live outside the city. We do not choose to live in Bay St. Louis or Diamondhead but we have family that do and they are not in favor of a unit system, because they know it's not a fair system for our county.

I wonder why the City of Waveland is questioning this system? They're always in favor of anything good and fair.

PLEASE VOTE JUNE 3RD AGAINST THE COUNTY UNIT SYSTEM.

Diamondhead Garden Club

The Diamondhead Garden Club held its final meeting of the club year at the Community Center with a salad/dessert luncheon. Mrs. Strabo Claggett presided in the absence of Ms. Jean Keen.

A brief business meeting included the reading of a letter of thanks from Mr. R. B. Boatright who had been made an honorary member last month. The members unanimously accepted the changes in the constitution and by-laws which had been presented to them last month by the parliamentarian, Mrs. Joseph Finley.

Announcement was made that the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McPhail had been awarded the Garden of the Month plaque, Diane's Beauty Shop had been given the Commercial Beautification Award, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ruth had been given the plaque for Favorite Golf Course Garden for May.

Mrs. Claggett read a letter that had been given to her prior to the departure of Ms. Keen for an extended stay in the East. In part it explained that she was reviving the custom of naming a Woman of the Year for special recognition, but was changing the title to the "GOYA - Gardener of the Year Award". There were two recipients this year, Mrs. T. V. Fredian and Mrs. James Hobbs. Special thank-you gifts were given to Mrs. Roger Onarati, recording secretary, for her outstanding work, and with sincere regrets that she will be leaving the area this summer; the other thank-you was to Mrs. Hillaire Ogden, who so graciously opened her home for workshops and other activities during the year.

Activities included a Crystal Party sponsored by Princess House, under the supervision of Mrs. Kay Sones. The crystal pieces, consisting of dinnerware, stemware, candelabra, etc. was attractively displayed on three tables.

A silent auction was in progress, with Mrs. Chris Arnos supervising. Each member had been asked to bring an item for the auction. Another money-making project was also part of the day's activity, called Half and Half. The winner of it, Mrs. Harrie Devine, immediately donated her winnings back to the club treasury.

The proceeds of all the money-making projects will be used for the beautification of the Atrium, which is adjacent to the Community Center, and is one of the club's priority projects for 1986-87. Its beautification is under the supervision of Mrs. James Hobbs.

Garden Park Hospital Auxiliary

AMI Garden Park Community Hospital Auxiliary held its annual luncheon and installation of officers on Friday, May 16, at the Holiday Inn on Hwy. 49.

The newly installed officers for this two-year term are Mrs. Bea Elmore, president; Mrs. Judy Saussy, first vice president; Mrs. Verla Degges, second vice president; Mrs. Ann Crowe, recording secretary; Mrs. Sally Byrne, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Cathy McCaleb, treasurer; and Mrs. Joyce Martin, Gift Shop manager.

During the luncheon, Mr. L.V. Johnston, executive director of AMI Garden Park Community Hospital, presented each member with a special service award for their dedicated service to the hospital and recognized the total 7,397 outstanding hours of volunteer work in which the auxiliaries have given to Garden Park during the past year.

Mr. Johnston gave special recognition to Mrs. Mary Schuffert, outgoing president, for her two years of service as president and presented her with a framed, registered, 10-ounce silver bar from the administrative staff and employees of the hospital.

The auxiliary truly accomplished many tasks but there were goals set for their special projects that were achieved as well. The members, from May 1985-May 1986, furnished the hospital chapel and donated the Mississippi Sandhill Crane sculpture for the outdoor fountain at the entrance of the hospital. AMI Garden Park Community Hospital is truly grateful for all that the auxiliary stands for and is proud to have such devoted ladies of the community serving in such a capacity.

American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 139

HONOR AMERICA DAYS

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139 along with other Auxiliary Units across the United States will be promoting Flag Day June 14 in Bay St. Louis.

This year has been declared the "Year of the Flag." In his remarks before the House of Representatives, Rep. Cobey of North Carolina stated, "By taking the initiative we will bring renewed understanding and appreciation of our flag. By designating 1986 as the 'Year of the Flag,' we will heighten awareness and interest in the relationship of the flag to our American heritage."

We can elevate the flag to its rightful position of honor and understanding. The flag is a living symbol of American ideals, traditions and unity. The flag stands for the values and purity of self-sacrifice that have made this country great."

The American Legion Auxiliary is asking the citizens of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County to display the American flag on their homes as well as their places of business.

The flag may fly 24 hours a day if it is properly illuminated during the hours of darkness. Be sure the flag is in good condition and is not tattered, torn or faded.

On days of extremely inclement weather, be sure to remove the flag to prevent it from being shredded by the winds.

If you have a flag that is tattered, torn or faded and you do not know what to do with it, call Lou Wilkerson, Americanism chairman, at 467-6098. The auxiliary will furnish a Flag Disposal Service. You can also deliver your old flags to the Legion Home on the days they are open.

On June 14, the American Legion and Auxiliary will join the Star Spangled Banner Flag House and Museum in observance of the Pause for the Pledge. The Pause for the Pledge will take place at historic Fort McHenry on June 14 at 6 p.m.

Please join us in the Pause for the Pledge.

The 21 days between Flag Day June 14 and Independence Day July 4 are called "Honor America Days."

This program is designed to increase knowledge of America's cultural heritage, constitutional form of government, history and to commemorate the independence of the United States of America.

During these 21 days we are asking Bay St. Louis and Hancock County to show their pride in America by displaying the flag of our country.

Consider carefully that the "Year of the Flag" is a great opportunity to renew and enhance the awareness and appreciation of our nation's ideals, traditions, developments and accomplishments which are important to inspiring and guiding our citizenry to carry our American legacy into the future.

We can accomplish that by bringing about proper respect and attitude toward the symbol which stands for this heritage, the Flag of the United States of America.

KOSKAN EYE CLINIC

We had our cataract surgery with confidence...

...and at no cost to us!

Bill and I are on a fixed income, so we had put off important cataract surgery. Then we learned Koskan Eye Clinic performs cataract surgery with implantation of intraocular lens at no cost to patients who have met their Medicare Part B deductible (or $75.00). What a blessing! At our age, we didn't want to lose sight of all the beautiful things in our lives!

YES
For the Unit System

When the Constitution of 1890 was drawn, it established the county beat system of government!

Hancock County is the fastest growing county on the Gulf Coast with a predicted population growth of 88% by the year 2000.

Government must change to meet the needs of a growing county. An 1890 form of government doesn't meet the needs of 1986, nor the future needs of Hancock County.

Unit System

Vote YES on Tuesday, June 3

Vote for:

- lower taxes
- better representation
- more efficient government
- more purchasing power
- no duplication of equipment

A unit system is a combining of effort, money, equipment, services, and personnel, all under the leadership of the Board of Supervisors. The Board of Supervisors will retain their ability and power to govern, and at the same time maintain their close supervisor/voter contact.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors has given us the opportunity to vote for a unit system on Tuesday, June 3rd. Together with the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, they have devised the framework of how a unit system will work for Hancock County.

Since 1933, every independent study of county government in Mississippi has shown that a unit system is a more efficient and effective way to provide governmental services at the local level.

Our county government has served us well because it is uniquely close to the people. It can become even more effective under a unit system because each supervisor can respond to his constituents with the resources of all five beats, not just one.

By working together, we can build a better Hancock County.

ADOPT-A-CAT MONTH— Morris, the tv commercial cat, is pulling for his fellow felines during the 12th annual Adopt-A-Cat Month in June, when loads of kittens and cats are in need of homes due to increased feline breeding. More than 800 animal shelters throughout the country, including Hancock Animal Shelter, are participating in the month-long campaign, sponsored by 9-Lives for the American Humane Association. A "welcome wagon" awaits all cats lucky enough to be adopted from the Hancock shelter during June: new owners receive an adoption kit compliments of Morris and 9-Lives, including The Morris Method book of cat care, a letter from Morris, an official adoption certificate and cat food coupons for the cat's homecoming party. The shelter is located on Gulfside Drive in Waveland and is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday. Call 467-0230.

The bonds are purchased at one-half of the denomination. The annual limitation on EE purchases is $30,000 face amount ($15,000 purchase price).
Series HH bond is issued in exchange for Series E and/or EE bonds and/or savings notes with a total redemption value of at least $500.
Series EE bonds issued on or after

November 1, 1982, and held for at least five years, earn interest at a variable market rate or a minimum guaranteed rate of 7.5 percent, whichever is more. Bonds held for less than five years earn interest on a fixed, graduated scale.
Series HH bonds issued on or after November 1, 1982, pay interest semi-annually at a rate of 7.5 percent.

NOTE: Series E bonds issued before November 1, 1947, will reach their final maturity 40 years after issue and will not be eligible for the market based interest rate. These bonds are earning 8.5 percent per year, compounded semi-annually, to final maturity.

Series EE bonds purchased from January through October, 1980, earn interest for 11 years from issue date; those purchased from November, 1980, through April, 1981, nine years; those purchased from May, 1981, through October, 1982, eight years; and those purchased from November, 1982 onward, 10 years.

EE bonds may be purchased over the counter or by mail from a Federal Reserve Bank and from the Bureau of the Public Debt, Washington, D.C. HH bonds are available by exchanging at Federal Reserve Bank or Treasury Department.

Savings bonds cannot be used as collateral. Interest earned on savings bonds is exempt from state income tax. (Source: U. S. Savings Bonds, Treasury Department, 1985)

IRAs for 1986...

Things to remember:

1. Shop around—check with banks, credit unions, brokerage firms, insurance companies and national associations for mutual funds.

2. Devise an investment strategy—if you are a few years from retirement, you might want to be cautious. If you are young you might take a more aggressive track and look for bigger payoffs.

3. Keep accurate records—track your saving. Make sure you have contributed the correct amount. If you find out you have over-invested, you can avoid the six percent excise penalty by withdrawing funds by April 15, 1987.

Carey Dinner Theater to salute Frank Loesser

Of the 22 shows presented by Carey Dinner Theatre at William Carey College in its first eleven years, 21 have been musical productions.

Batiks, prints to be displayed at Pass library

The Pass Christian Art Association reports Dottie Pagano this month will display her batiks, silk-screen prints and other works of art at Le Belle Art Center, corner of Davis Avenue and Second Street in Pass Christian.

Opening reception in her honor is scheduled Sunday, June 8 between 2 and 4 p.m.

The public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

Pagano holds a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Southern Mississippi where she studied under Charles Ambrose, Harry Ward and Rita DeWitt.

She began her art studies at William Carey College, studying under Francis Price Smith, and later at the John McCrady School of Art in New Orleans she studied oil painting under Allan Flatmann, design in batik with Stella Lewis and watercolor with Mary McCrady.

About the ancient Mayan art of batik she says, "It is a freer and allows more creativity," she also considers it an art form and not a craft.

Pagano is certified to teach art education from kindergarten through high school.

In speaking of her works, she says that the subject matter evokes images to her which in turn "dictate which media will best communicate the feelings I wish to express."

Therefore, she sometimes chooses watercolor, some times a form of print-making or even batik or some other mixed media.

She has shown her batik creations at the Downtown Gallery in New Orleans, at the Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Public Libraries and at the Edgewater Mall in Biloxi.

The majority of these have been revues.

Following that tradition the 12th season will feature two musical revues, the first featuring one composer's work and the second something entirely new for Carey Dinner Theatre.

"Perfectly Frank," spotlighting the music of Frank Loesser, will open the season, with performances June 12 through 28.

Many of Loesser's more familiar songs—he wrote fifteen hundred—were first heard in Broadway musicals such as "Guys and Dolls," "The Most Happy Fella," "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," "Where's Charley," and others.

Much of Loesser's time was spent in composing for films. He won an academy award for "Baby, It's Cold Outside" from the film, "Neptune's Daughter." Known as the "song writing hero of World War II," he wrote a number of songs expressing support of the American war effort, such as "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition."

The second production, scheduled for July 8 - 19, is "Reprise." This revue will feature highlights from the first eleven seasons of Carey Dinner Theatre. "For several years," says Obra Quave, managing director, "a number of people in our audience have asked us to repeat memorable moments from the past. Thus, the idea is audience-inspired."

The title, "Reprise," comes from the musical term meaning to repeat the performance.

Dinner is served at 7 p.m. in the O. L. Quave Theatre on the Hattiesburg campus of William Carey College, and the performance follows.

Admission of $12.50 includes dinner and show. Reservations may be made by calling 582-6221 between 10:30 a.m. and 7 p.m., Monday through Saturday. There are no performances Sundays and Mondays.

Brother Edmonds professes final Divine Word vows

Brother Douglas Edmonds, son of Floyd Edmonds of Cleveland, Ohio, and the late Agnes Edmonds, professed final vows as a Divine Word Missionary Brother at Divine Word Seminary, Techy, Ill. on May 17.

Brother Doug was born in Parma, Ohio in 1951. He was baptized at St. Vincent de Paul Parish, attended grammar school at St. Bridget in Parma and graduated in 1966.

He attended Divine Word Seminary High School in Girard, Pa., for two years and graduated from Valley Forge High School in 1969.

He attended Cuyohoga Community College and Balwin Wallace College in Berea and obtained a degree in psychology and science education. Following graduation, he taught for four years at St. Mel's and Ascension Catholic Schools in Cleveland.

In 1978, he began his training as a Divine Word Brother in Chicago. He completed his novitiate and pronounced first vows at St. Augustine's in Bay St. Louis in August, 1980.

Since becoming a brother he has served as a teacher at St. Stanislaus, co-ordinator of liturgy, treasurer and business manager at St. Augustine and as parish pastoral associate at Notre Dame Church in St. Martinville, La.

BRO. DOUGLAS EDMONDS, SVD

He obtained a master of arts degree in liturgical studies at the University of Notre Dame in 1984.

Brother Doug has been assigned to teach at Divine Word College in Epworth, Iowa.

By his life commitment to religious life, he joins more than 5,000 members of the Society of the Divine Word, an international religious missionary community working in more than 50 nations.

'Speaking Oracles of God'

—1 Peter 4:11

By W. Edwin Kearley, Minister

501 Pine St.

Bay St. Louis

THE HOLY SPIRIT'S PART IN CONVERSION

The Holy Spirit clearly has part in conversion. The following four points must be observed.

(1) The Holy Spirit revealed the gospel of Christ to his apostles and writers of the New Testament.

(2) The Holy Spirit used the word in conversion of sinners.

(3) All are converted with revealed truth.

(4) The Holy Spirit does not operate separate from the word in conversion.

Not a single case is recorded, after the gospel was given on Pentecost in Acts 2, when anyone was saved directly, independently or instantaneously by the Holy Spirit apart from the gospel of Christ.

The Holy Spirit revealed the gospel. Jesus made some statements concerning the revelation: "He will guide you into all truth." (John 16:13) "He will teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." (John 14:26) "He shall testify of me." (John 15:26-27) "He will convict the world of sin and of righteousness and of judgement." (John 16:8-11)

On Pentecost the apostles spoke "as the Spirit gave them utterance." (Acts 2:4) Paul speaks of how the spirit inspired him, "We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. This is what we speak, not in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words." (1 Cor. 2:12-13, New International Version)

The inspiration was not thought inspiration but plenary inspiration. "Plenary means complete. In Gen. 12:2, the Lord made promises to Abraham. The greatest promise was that through his seed all nations would be blessed.

Paul spoke of this promise to the Galatians, "Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, and to seeds, as of many; but as of one, and to thy seed, which is Christ." (Gal. 3:16) Inspiration was so exact that trust can be put in the singular and plural of inspired words. Remember translations are not inspired.

All scripture was given by inspiration. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." (2 Tim. 3:16-17) Jude said of the faith, "...They which was once delivered unto the saints." (Jude 3)

The Holy Spirit uses the word of God in conversion. The conversion, of which we speak, is turning from evil to God. Jesus said one is drawn to the Son by the Father. But how does the Father draw the sinner to the Son?

Jesus stated, "It is written in the prophets, and they shall all be taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me." (John 6:44-45)

How does God teach? Paul informs us, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth..." (Rom 1:16) To the Corinthians Paul stated, "For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet ye have not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel." (1 Cor. 4:15) James wrote, "Of his own will begat he us with the Word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures." (Jas. 1:18)

Peter reminded those to whom he wrote, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit...being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God which liveth and abideth forever." (1 Pet. 1:22-23) The word is the agency of the Spirit in converting the soul to God.

In the New Testament, the same instrumentality of revealed truth was used for all. There are not recorded exceptions or inferences of exceptions. New Testament examples of conversion are found in Acts 2: Acts 8:5-12; 8:35-38; Acts 9 and 10; Acts 22:16.

The word of truth revealed by the Holy Spirit, through the agency of man, was and is used to convert men to the Lord in obedience.

The six steps are:

(1) The word of the gospel was preached in every instance of conversion.

(2) All of them heard the word.

(3) All who were saved believed the word.

(4) All repented of their sins.

(5) All confessed their faith in Christ. (Rom 10:9-10)

(6) All were baptized for the remission of their sins (Acts 2:38; Acts 22:16; Rom. 6:1-4; Matt. 28:19)

Those who were converted, were taught again. (Matt. 28:20; Rom 13:14; Rev. 2:10)

No separate operation of the Holy Spirit is necessary in conversion. The word of the Lord is sufficient. Errors of men conflict with the Bible. The New Testament must be our rule of faith and practice.

Beef lovers rejoice!
The best tasting beef in America is now yours.

Better than USDA Choice! Better than Black Angus!
More highly selected than USDA Prime!

Certified Angus Beef

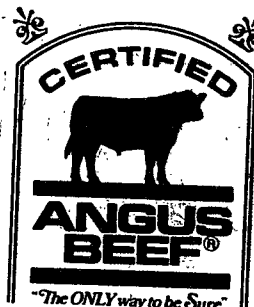

Experts agree: Certified Angus Beef is the tenderest, best tasting beef in America. And now, by special arrangement with the American Angus Association this top quality beef is available to you at National and Canal Villere.

ONLY ONE IN FOUR IS GOOD ENOUGH

The Certified Angus Beef stamp of approval carries such high quality standards that only one in four, just 25% of all the Angus cattle tested, are accepted. By contrast, the USDA Choice rating is given to 90% of all beef graded. Even beef advertised as "Black Angus" offers no assurance that it could pass Certified Angus Beef inspections.

THE DIFFERENCE IS IN THE MARBLING

The difference between an average steak and a tender, juicy Certified Angus Beef steak is the marbling — the small flecks of white throughout the beef. The marbling in Certified Angus Beef insures a better tasting cut of meat every time.

"The ONLY way to be Sure"

EVEN OUR TRIMMING IS SPECIAL

To make sure you get the very best value our meat department trims each cut of Certified Angus Beef to a maximum of 1/4 inch of fat. This not only saves you money but helps make Certified Angus Beef lower in cholesterol than skinless chicken.

LOOK FOR THE SHIELD

So, if you're looking for the best tasting beef in America, just look for the special Certified Angus Beef section in our fresh meat case. The Certified Angus Beef shield guarantees that you'll be serving beef that's better than USDA Choice, better than "Black Angus" and even more highly selected than USDA Prime.
